

Indera SC

Indera Sports Club (Malay: Kelab Sukan Indera; abbrev: ISC), formerly Kilat FC and Indera Football Association, is a multi-sports club based in Brunei, mostly known for its association football team.

History

Early years

Kilat FC was founded in 1970 by nobleman Pengiran Anak Hassanuddin Al-Haj bin Pengiran Anak Safiuddin with his siblings, and was based in Kilanas.<sup>[4]</sup> The club underwent several name changes Indera Football Association and Indera Football Club.<sup>[4]</sup> Over the years they became an established force in the local football scene, winning district-level championships in the seventies and eighties.<sup>[2]</sup>

Success in Brunei

In 2002, Indera became one of the teams that featured in the inaugural Proton B-League, but finished fifth in their group and failed to advance to the second stage.<sup>[5]</sup> They accomplished this the next season, finishing in sixth place.<sup>[6]</sup> They then made eighth place for the next three seasons, in risk of relegation to the Premier II, the second level of the Brunei league structure then. In the 2009–10 season, the team was boosted by the arrivals of Sairol Sahari, Azwan Saleh and Helmi Zambin on loan from DPMM FC, ultimately faring much better in sixth place.<sup>[7]</sup>

In early 2010, the club management decided to change its name to Indera Sports Club to incorporate other disciplines such as futsal, badminton and netball.<sup>[2]</sup> The football team entered the Brunei Super League as a founding member in 2012, winning the championship thanks to stellar performances by future Brunei stars such as Azwan Ali Rahman, Nurikhwan Othman and Abdul Mu'iz Sisa, with the astute signing of Hamizan Aziz Sulaiman from QAF FC the previous year also becoming a major contributing factor.<sup>[8]</sup> They won both Super League championships in 2013 and 2014.<sup>[8]</sup> They had their biggest win by demolishing Najip FC 20–1 in the 2013 Super League.<sup>[9][10]</sup> During the 2014 Super League, Indera retained the championship, with a solitary defeat to MS ABDB their only blemish all season.<sup>[11]</sup>

The 2015 Super League match between Indera and Tabuan Muda on 25 October was prematurely called off after a third sending off for Indera left them with just eight players on the field. The referee adjudged that Tabuan Muda be given a 3–0 win due to not enough opposition players but it was contrary to the league rules which was based on the Laws of the Game that the judgement should have been ruled when the opposition is reduced to seven players.<sup>[12]</sup> A rematch was granted almost a month later but Tabuan Muda themselves did not adequately show up for the match, resulting in a 3–0 walkover to Indera and a fine for the Brunei national youth team.<sup>[13][14]</sup> The team came in second place to MS ABDB, the football team of the Royal Brunei Armed Forces.<sup>[15]</sup>

Indera won the 2017–18 FA Cup after Zulkhairy Razali and Asri Aspar's goals clinched it against MS PDB.<sup>[18]</sup> They would proceed to win the following 2018 Super Cup after a 2–1 victory against MS ABDB that same year.<sup>[19]</sup>

2020 AFC Cup

Indera SC made their regional competition debut at the 2020 Asian Football Confederation \(AFC\) Cup. On 13 December 2019, the club officially announced the signing of four foreign players prior to their second leg knockout against Yangon United. The players were Rodrigo Tosi, Marcelo Carvalho de Souza, Prince Yamoah Boafu and Tekson Tubeng.<sup>[20]</sup> During the first leg of the play-offs, Indera was thrashed 1–6 by Yangon United at the Hassanal Bolkiah National Stadium.<sup>[21]</sup> In the second leg, they were defeated 3–1 again.<sup>[22]</sup> The club was sent home after an aggregated 9–1 loss.

Recent results

The club was at 7th place in the 2020 Super League when it was unexpectedly postponed and eventually cancelled due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic in the country, ending the tournament with only two matches completed.<sup>[23]</sup> This would occur again prior to the 2021 Super League following to the restrictions reapplied by the Ministry of Health,<sup>[24]</sup> and finally abandoned after orders made by the Football Association of Brunei Darussalam \(FABD\).<sup>[25]</sup> That following year, the restrictions were lifted and it enabled Indera to participate in the 2022 FA Cup,<sup>[26]</sup> the only football tournament held by the FABD for the year.<sup>[27]</sup> ISC would only make it as far as the quarter finals after two devastating losses, 5–1 and 8–0 against DPMM FC.<sup>[28][29]</sup>

In the 2023 season, Indera finished as runners-up in the league after 16 games, behind Kasuka FC.<sup>[30]</sup> With the entry of the second team of DPMM FC starting from the 2024–25 season, Indera would finish one place lower in the standings although the acquisition of decorated midfielder Hendra Azam Idris was a highlight of their campaign.<sup>[31]</sup>

In the 2025 Brunei FA Cup, Indera managed to advance to the finals of the competition on 18 May where they were beaten 1–0 by DPMM II.<sup>[32]</sup>

Indera Sports Club Academy

The Indera Sports Club Academy (ISCA) was founded as part of the club's Youth Development Programme on 28 April 2019.<sup>[9]</sup> It is another significant step in the effective management of the ISC in inspiring a generation of players from the grassroots to the young level. According to the ISC head of Youth Development Roney Morni, the academy has attracted 100 players by 2020. The under (U)-19, U-16, U-12, U-10 and U-8 age groups are supervised and coached by 15 coaches, including four female trainers.<sup>[33]</sup>
